Residents of the Peter Dawson Lodge can now enjoy their favorite television programs in the privacy of their own rooms as the result of a joint project of the Lions Clubs in the county.

A three-channel television antenna and mast and service outlets in all rooms have now been installed, with the $480 total cost being shared by the Lions Clubs of Arrowwood, Carmangay, Champion, Lomond, Milo-Queenstown, Mossleigh and Vulcan. The committee in charge of the project was composed of the immediate past president of each club, with Evan Munro of Vulcan as the chairman.

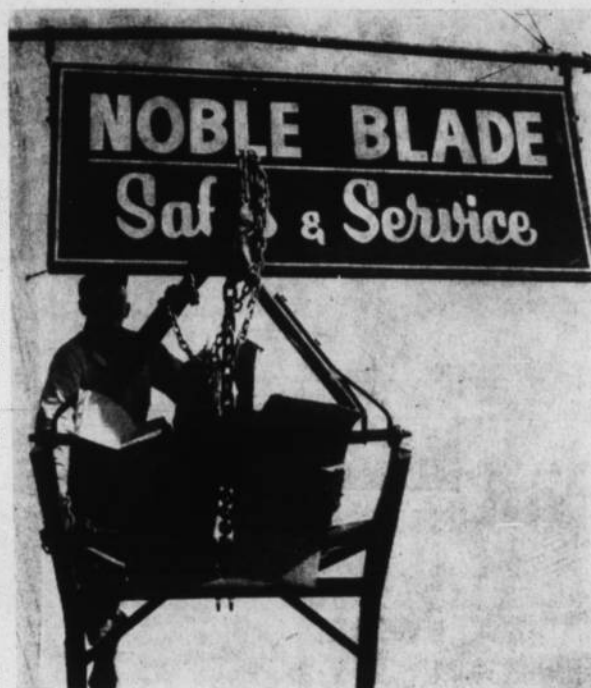

The project was completed this winter and a plaque indicating the clubs involved now hangs on a wall of the main lounge in the lodge.

Thirty-six farm leaders from all parts of Alberta were in attendance.

The course will be informal and speakers will encourage audience participation with questions and comments on farm wiring methods, installation of motors and equipment and other allied subjects.

On March 16 a day-long program of interest to stock-growers will be held at the Biology Building, of the Lethbridge Research Station.

Entitled Reproductive Efficiency and Artificial Insemination, this series of lectures and discussions will enlarge upon such headings as Sire Selection, Herd Records, Factors Affecting Reproductive Efficiency, and Diseases Affecting Reproduction.

Noon luncheon will be served courtesy of Southern Feeds Limited and Master Feeds.

Healthy Surplus and Reserves

County Holds Good Financial Position During Past Year

The County of Vulcan No. 2 is in sound financial position with surplus and reserves amounting to $517,131, said Reeve Jack Deltz in presenting his report to the annual ratepayers meeting held in the high school auditorium, Vulcan, Saturday afternoon, March 6th. About 60 ratepayers were in attendance.

The county's surplus was increased by $1,979 in 1964 after providing for a reserve of $30,000 for paving in 1965. Tax collections remained good in 1964.

The school committee report was given by Frank Thurber, deputy chairman of the school committee and includes the figures on the cost of the new vocational wing. Mr. Thurber's report was augmented by that of School Superintendent E. K. Hawkesworth, who stated that the teacher shortage at both high school and elementary levels is expected to get worse. Alberta has the highest population growth rate in Canada, he said, and the cities of Calgary, Edmonton and Lethbridge alone could take all the teachers graduating from the two Alberta universities this year.

Two motions were passed by the meeting in connection with school matters:

(1) That figures showing the number of school vans operated by the county, their value and the cost of operating the county-owned vans be included in the annual financial statement.

(2) That institution of the semester system at the County Central High School in Vulcan be investigated by the School Committee.

Elementary Pupils Foster Parents Of Viet Nam Child

The students and staff of Hazel Cameron Elementary School recently sent away a cheque for $192, thus becoming the 'Foster parents of Thi Nhieu of Viet Nam for another year.

In raising this money, the students gave donations at Christmas time, instead of exchanging gifts with their school chums. Also, several candy and popcorn sales were held during December, January and February so that the last $60 could be raised.

Thi Nhieu writes to the students each month and the students take turns writing back to her.

The parents, as well as the students, are to be congratulated on the effort and thought taken to make this project a success.

Ivan Haga's report dealt mainly with the proposed paving project, planned to start this year. The initial phase calls for construction of the base course on six miles of the Reid Hill road and five miles of the Lomond road. The county will do this work itself, using its own equipment and crews. The hot mix seal coat, for which 21 miles of base course should be ready in 1967, will be done by contract, as the special equipment required is considered too costly for limited use.

It was suggested from the floor that the County of Vulcan erect signs adjacent to the highways entering the county, stating that the traveller is now entering the County of Vulcan and showing the population, size and main industries.

Wilson Oldfield was chairman of the two-hour meeting and D. D. McQueen was secretary.

Note:—The complete reports of the reeve and the school and municipal committees will be found on an inside page of this issue of The Advocate.

Jim Fetterly Guest Speaker

Full Evening At Annual F & G Sportsmen's Night

The promise of something different at this year's sixth annual Sportsmen's Night of the Vulcan and District Fish and Game Association was carried out last Friday night. There was something for everyone and more than a little left over.

Between 7 p.m. and midnight an excellent turkey supper was enjoyed, a number of introductions and short speeches were given, a talented humorist entertained, there was a musical program, a sing-song and an old time dance, and during the evening enough fish and game business was brought out to keep people aware of the purpose of the night.

In what is claimed as the first time in the history of the Vulcan Lodge Hall, supper was served on the main floor and about 175 members and guests partook of an excellent meal of turkey catered to by the Eastern Star.

Seated at the head table and introduced by president Glen Dahl were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fetterly, Alberta Fish and Game President Henry Lembicz and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Bob Johnson, Mayor M. R. Morrison and Mrs. Dahl.

In his review of past year's activities president Glen spoke of the kid's night, junior pike derby, Fish and Game float, bird house competition, hunter-training program, resolutions and attendance at the Provincial convention and distribution of hunting signs.

In his short message to the association Alberta Fish and Game President Henry Lembicz reaffirmed the group's stand against the contentious issue of establishment of hunting preserves in Alberta which was to come before the Provincial Legislature this week. Of hunting preserves the speaker said, "they will open up the door to the loss of hunting privileges in the future unless you have lots of

In a local vein, Mr. Lembicz suggested.

MR. AND MRS. LOUIS WARREN

Pioneers Celebrate 50 Years

Early residents of the Champion district, where they farmed for over 30 years, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Warren of Calgary celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on February 17, 1965.

Louis Warren came to a homestead at Claresholm in 1907 from Anderson, Missouri, and a few years later moved to a farm west of Champion. Mrs. Warren, the former Belle Cook, came west when her father, John Cook, left Mitchell, Ont. with his family in 1912 and settled near Champion. Mr. Cook later retired to Calgary and died in 1948.

Louis Warren and Belle Cook were married in Vulcan on February 17, 1915, and farmed at Champion until 1946, when they retired to 244-16th Ave. N.E., Calgary.

There are four children, Wilford, Joe and Hubert still farming in the Champion district and Ruth (Mrs. Don Hannah) in Calgary and 10 grandchildren.

An Open House was held in Rosemont Community Hall on 10th St. 28th Ave N. in Calgary, from 2-5 in the afternoon and 7-9 in the evening on Feb. 17, 1965. Approximately 160 guests called to give their good wishes to the couple. Among those who poured tea were Mrs. Earl Ditto, Mrs. Lily Harper, Mrs. Charles Yule, Mrs. Elsie Hannah and Mrs. C. O'Leary.

Guests from out of town were Mrs. Jennie Hurs, Shelby, Mont.; Mrs. Reta Dorey, Kansas City, Missouri, and Mrs. Bertha Pogue from Anderson, Missouri, sisters of Mr. Warren. Mr. Ferrell Pogue and Clyde Harreman of Anderson, nephew of Mr. Warren, were also visiting. Many old friends came from Lethbridge, Milo, Vulcan, Claresholm, Parkland, Nanton, High River and Champion.

Among the many lovely flowers, cards and telegrams were certificates from Premier Manning, Lieutenant Governor J. Percy Page, Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson, Governor General Vanier and John D. Diefenbaker.

On Sunday, Feb. 21, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Warren were host to 30 of their relatives at a delicious banquet served at the Highlander hotel in Calgary.

'Certified Bulk' Program In Effect

(By Gordon South, President Canadian Seed Growers' Ass'n.)

The Canadian Seed Growers' Association have inaugurated a new feature in their Pedigree Program. The "Certified Bulk" Program, which is now in effect, is designed and tailored to meet the demands of farmers both technologically and economically.

Seed Growers and Seed Processors, in order to be able to participate, must first of all be authorized by the Plant Products Division in Ottawa; in order to qualify, the Seed Plant or Seed Grower must be able to provide adequate facilities and procedures that are necessary in the administration of the Bulk Program.

The Bulk Certified Seed first of all gives the purchaser the same quality that he would get if he bought it in packages, the only difference being that the bulk product would not be eligible to produce Certified Seed. However, unless there is a need for recertification of a variety, even packaged Certified Seed will not be eligible for recertification.

The "Bulk Certified" Seed has been given the over-delivery privilege by the Canadian Wheat Board; in other words, farmers may use the over-delivery of up to 600 bushels of commercial grain at the elevator for the purchase of up to 225 bushels of Pedigreed Seed, and Certified Bulk is included as an eligible product.

Because the need for sacks and sacking procedures are eliminated, the product to the farmer should be 20 to 25 cents per bushel cheaper than the sacked Certified and because it is in bulk, it can be loaded and unloaded more easily than the sacks by using the regular elevation method.

"Certified Bulk" seed is cheaper, more easily handled and available for farm use. See the Seed Growers in your area for more details.

Hon. Harry E. Strom, Alberta Minister of Agriculture, has declared March Good Seed Month. He examines a sample of pure seed with Elden Kaun, President, Canadian Seed Growers' Association, Alberta Branch.

Three Factors Considered For Best Seed Results

(By O. G. Bratvold, Supervisor, Alberta Crop Improvement Service)

To get the most from his seed, the farmer needs to consider three separate factors. He should strive for purity. He does not want to plant weed seeds that he will have to spend money later trying to eradicate. He also wants freedom from diseases that may seriously reduce his yields. And above all, he needs genetic purity. He will want to reap the benefits of research that gives him better crop performance and higher yields.

Clean seed means seed free of impurities such as weed seeds and seeds of other crops. It also means seed relatively free from disease. There are highly efficient seed plants in most districts where farmers can have their seed custom cleaned to a high standard. The importance of clean seed cannot be over-emphasized. Many thousands of dollars are lost annually through yields resulting from the competition of weeds.

Seed cleaning can also reduce the incidence of seed borne diseases. Most notable is the effect that good cleaning and sizing of seed has on the incidence of loose smut in barley.

McFadden and co-workers at Lacombe have shown that by screening barley seed so as to remove all the small seeds, the percentage of infection of loose smut is substantially reduced.

The cost of cleaning commercial seed is usually less than 10 cents per bushel. In terms of barley, an increase in yield of one-quarter of a bushel per acre would more than pay for the cleaning.

Much the same may be said for the cost of seed treatment which usually averages about 5 or 6 cents per bushel.

It is equally as important to use seed that has genetic purity. This means seed that is all of the same variety and will perform in accordance with the characteristics of that variety. A variety is the result of plant breeder's research and testing.

The improvements and developments in our crops as a result of plant breeding are tremendous. One need only look back over the history of wheat in Western Canada to realize that this basic crop of ours would never have been more than a very minor crop had it not been for the efforts of the plant breeder. Who among us would even think of growing Red Fife today? Or for that matter, even Marquis which was such a big step forward. And when rust almost wiped out wheat production in Manitoba and Eastern Saskatchewan, little more than a decade ago, Selkirk and Pembina were developed and saved the day for these farmers.

Similar developments have taken place in our forage crops. I wonder how many of us realize that alfalfa, the queen of forages, was not always adapted to our climate? When alfalfa was first used by man in pre-biblical times, it was a semi-tropical plant. When it was first introduced to the North American continent in the mid-eighteenth century, it was grown only in Georgia and other southern states, and it was thought to be of only limited value to agriculture because it lacked winter hardiness. Yet today, it is used throughout Canada and to the most northerly reaches of agriculture in this country. Rambler, Vernal and Beaver alfalfa are now being grown commercially at Ft. Vermilion, 650 miles north of the international boundary.

Varieties have been developed for improvement in yield, maturity, strength of straw, disease resistance, quality of product, resistance to insects and many other problems that plague the farmer. One would think that it might be terribly expensive to avail oneself of the result of all this research.

But certified seed is not expensive. The small additional cost of certified seed can be regained by an increase in yield of from one to 1½ bushels per acre. Certified seed not only guarantees genetic purity, its freedom from weed seeds is also high. Certified seed is truly the farmer's best bargain of the year.

Seed With Pedigree Is Safe Bet

The farmer can be assured that the family tree of pedigreed seed will reveal no skeletons. This assurance comes from Art Wilson, Field Crops Commissioner, Alberta Department of Agriculture.

Mr. Wilson says the geneticists and plant breeders have long since removed these skeletons and only the blood lines of superior quality have been preserved. The heredity of pedigree seed is traceable through records to the foundation stock from which it came.

The Commissioner stressed that the foundation stock is a combination of the good qualities of several varieties or strains built into a new variety by the plant breeder through his knowledge of genetics. He said, "It is the Royal Flush selected by the plant breeder to meet a particular need in a particular area."

The Seed Grower has the responsibility of multiplying the foundation stock through two or three generations without contamination from any outside source and at the same time removing from the stock any sports or rogues that may appear.

Mr. Wilson pointed out that the farmer who plants registered or certified seed plants seed with a pedigree. He emphasized the seed bears a guarantee of purity to variety, the germination must meet the high standards of the Canada Seeds Act and it is rigidly inspected for objectionable weeds. He said, "Experienced farmers know the value of a pedigree — they regularly renew their seed stocks just to be sure."

The Red Cross has been honored on four occasions by being presented with the Nobel Peace Prize.

Committee Reports Given at the Annual Vulcan County Meeting

REPORT OF JACK DEITZ Reeve

As reeve of the County for the past year, it is my duty to report to you at this meeting regarding the activities of the Council and operations for the year ended on December 31, 1964.

I think one could say that the year 1964 was above average in County business and achievement. Most notable is the completion of the new vocational wing on this school as you see. The County of Vulcan is one of the first school authorities to expand its high school offerings in this field and it is meeting with a great deal of success.

At the 1964 annual meeting, I reported that our new general assessment would likely be ready to use this year, 1965, but it still has to be postponed for another year. We hope to send out assessment notices later on this summer and have plenty of time to hold the court of revision and complete all the work necessary before the end of the year. Ratepayers are advised to look into their assessments and if there is anything you want explained, I am sure that the assessor or the office staff will be able to give the information required. Assessing these days is a technical procedure and we want to have as fair an assessment as possible.

Farmers in the County experienced a pretty good year last year and are maintaining the good tax paying percentage we have enjoyed for the past number of years. Our 1964 levy was $974,218; the current levy unpaid at the end of the year was $153,599 or 15.76%.

Total amount of taxes collected (net) current and arrears was $959,127. The percentage of current taxes collected was 98.45 which is 8% percent better than 1963. Uncollected taxes at the end of 1964 were approximately $238,000 against $253,000 at the end of 1963 in spite of a $40,000 increase in the current levy.

Our financial statement shows that the County had a small surplus of $1,979 after providing for a reserve of $30,000 for the 1965 paving project. The municipal section's surplus was $27,522 while the school deficit was $25,543.

Our overall surplus account is shown in detail on page 18. Surplus was increased by $26,000 in 1964. Included in this figure is $24,669 revenue from the sale of tax recovery lands.

County's revenue assets total $775,274, liabilities are $258,143, leaving $517,131 in surplus and reserves. These figures present a sound financial position. We have been able to operate with very little borrowing. 1964 demand loans interest was only $257.34. Our total interest earning on bank deposits was over $8,000.

Since we last met, our new Senior Citizens' Home, the Peter Dawson Lodge, has commenced operating and has proved to be very successful in providing accommodation for our senior citizens. At the present time, there is room for a dozen or so more guests, and I would urge those who might require this service to make use of it. There has been some activity lately in promoting the erection of a nursing home in Vulcan to serve the people of our County and the Town of Vulcan, and the villages. The Vulcan-Foothills Nursing Home District Board is responsible and controls the building and operation of nursing homes in its area which comprises the County of Vulcan, Municipal District of Foothills, the Towns of Vulcan, High River, Okotoks, and the villages in the area. The board is composed of seven members, one each from the Towns of Vulcan, High River, and Okotoks and two from the County of Vulcan and Municipal District of Foothills. Mr. Haga and Mr. McNiven are members representing the County. Within the past month, the board has discussed applications from private individuals and corporations to build and operate a nursing home in Vulcan. Probably there will be some discussion on this subject and I will let the board members give you the details and what has been done up to now.

The Council has been considering for the past few months, plans for a start on a paving program and has prepared a map showing a tentative program to be undertaken in the next few years. There will be, no doubt, considerable interest in this project and I will leave this to the Municipal Committee to discuss with you.

As you know, there was no change in our council during the year, and councillors were re-elected by acclamation last November.

The County administration and ratepayers generally suffered a severe loss in the passing of Guy Voisey last June. Mr. Voisey was a valued member of the School Committee from the Town of Vulcan. He was also a very well-known pioneer of this community where he farmed in the Alston district for many years. He made a very fine contribution to our schools and was keenly interested in the welfare of the students. Ray Wellman was elected a member from the Town of Vulcan to fill the vacancy.

In conclusion, I wish to thank the members of the Council for their support and efforts put forth in the service of the County. To the County employees, I extend thanks for their efficiency and loyalty in their work. The rather large and important business of operating the County has grown over the years and we hope we have been able to progress and keep up-to-date with the best possible service to our people.

I respectfully submit this report for your information and consideration.

Jack Deitz
Reeve

REPORT OF FRANK THURBER Deputy Chairman, School Committee

In the absence of the chairman of the School Committee, Mr. McKay, who is on a holiday, it is my duty as vice-chairman to report to this meeting on the School Administration for the year 1964.

Commencing with this year, the procedure to be followed at the County Annual Meeting is to place the discussion of school affairs as the first item on the agenda. This is done so that those interested from the villages and the Town of Vulcan, which are included in the County for School purposes, may know when to come to the meeting. We welcome these ratepayers and parents and urge them to take their rightful part in the meeting.

The County Administration and ratepayers generally suffered a severe loss in the passing of Guy Voisey last June. Mr. Voisey was a valued member of the School Committee from the Town of Vulcan. He was also a very well-known pioneer of this community where he farmed in the Alston district for many years. He made a very fine contribution to our schools and was keenly interested in the welfare of the students. Ray Wellman was elected a member from the Town of Vulcan to fill the vacancy.

Mr. Hawkesworth, Superintendent, is here and will deal with his report which is published in the financial statement on pages 48 and 49.

It is very gratifying to the committee to have the new vocational wing in operation.

Students are availing themselves of the opportunity for study and training in the commercial fields. We are looking for good results from these special courses.

You will be interested to know the cost of this new school and how it was financed.

The following figures showing the cost are not 100% complete as there are one or two minor items to be obtained. They are, however, 99% complete.

In addition to this we expect to receive a Sales Tax Refund of $ 13,000.00.

Ordinarily, new school construction is financed by the province through the foundation program on approval expenditures. The upgrading of the original building such as the installation of air conditioning, renovations, etc. were unapproved expenditures amounting to approximately $50,000.00 which will be paid during the life of the debenture from funds other than foundation program grants.

Our financial statement shows a school deficit of $25,543 which is directly due to over-expenditures on capital account. For the past few years, the County has been providing and improving teacherages, and last year the sum of $10,000 was spent finishing the steel buildings in Vulcan and extending a dwelling in Milo. We do not anticipate very much further capital expenditures on teacherages. Repairs and maintenance are looked after by rentals. Also, our capital spending included $29,000 for busses. We purchased four busses from private contractors and two new busses for replacements. The County is gradually acquiring school vans and is able to operate at a fairly good profit from Foundation Program transportation grants. County operated school vans pay off.

While I am talking finances, I may say that there doesn't seem to be much hope for a reduction in school taxes this year unless there are increased payments from the Foundation fund. You will recall the Provincial Treasurer in his budget speech the other night, mentioned the possibility of more money. While I can't promise either that school taxes won't be raised, we do hope to be able to stay within our present school tax rate.

Frank Thurber
Deputy Chairman,
School Committee.

REPORT OF IVAN HAGA CHAIRMAN, MUNICIPAL COMMITTEE

The Public Works Department of the County is responsible for highway construction and maintenance.

Our detailed report is on pages 50 and 51. Page 30 shows the amount allocated for public works and the actual amount spent. You will note that we were under-expended by $14,600.

Mr. Deitz referred to our paving program this year. At the outset, I should say that the County will not be getting the usual contingency grant from the Province for grading special roads. In the past few years, we have been getting about $50,000 of road building done under this contingency grant.

This year, we have applied for the contingency grant in cash and will apply it to our paving project. We hope to get from $75,000 to $100,000.

Our plans are projected for three years. The roads involved are the Reid Hill and Milo roads. This year we hope to do the base course for about six miles east from Highway 23 on the Reid Hill road and five miles east from the junction between Highways 23 and 24 towards Milo. In 1966, we expect to do another five miles on each of these two roads, and in 1967, put the paving seal coat on the 21 miles. No firm plans have been made for 1968 at this time.

Continuing his report, Mr. Haga said that a tentative paving plan for the whole county had been prepared and although it would take years to accomplish it called for 170 miles of hardtop. This would put every ratepayer within six miles of a paved road.

With gravel getting very scarce in the county, it was felt that paving was the answer to this problem. Two types of paving are being considered, one light and one heavy, and the type used on a road would depend on the amount and kind of traffic normally using that road. On the Reid Hill (Lomond) road the first stage base course cost was estimated at $17,000 per mile, while on the Milo road, where traffic is lighter, the base course cost is estimated at $8,000 per mile.

Gravel is now being stockpiled for these projects. The county is hauling all the gravel and intends to do all the base course work itself, using present county-owned equipment. The only new equipment required would be some packers.

The hot mix seal coat would likely be done by contract, as the special equipment required was considered too costly to buy for limited usage.

The department of highways, which must approve the county's paving projects, has been asked to lower its construction standards for district roads where traffic would not be very heavy. Mr. Haga said, Saskatchewan was using a base course only type of surfacing that appeared to be adequate and which, it was hoped, might be approved for use in Alberta.

Hard-surfaced roads in the county would have to be maintained and kept in good repair.

N. H. Bradley, former district highways engineer at Lethbridge, has been retained by the county as consulting engineer on the paving project.

Arrowwood Bride To Live In Oregon

The new Oakland Temple of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon) in Oakland, California, was the scene of marriage vows solemnized between Maureen Louise, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forest H. House of Arrowwood, and Gordon Marce, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley V. Cochran of Springfield, Oregon.

For her wedding the bride chose a white formal floor-length dress of chantilly lace styled in New York. Flowing gracefully from the fitted bodice of lacy-oversatin was the full skirt made of tiers of lace and accented by a small train. The long lace sleeves featured pointed wrists. The scalloped sweetheart neckline was accented by a strand of white pearls, gift of the groom. Her face was charmingly framed by a mantilla of chantilly lace imported from France.

The simple ceremony over the altar was performed by Temple President Delbert F. Wright, with two witnesses present at the rites. The plain white-gold bands exchanged by the couple were inscribed with, Love Is Eternal.

For her honeymoon in the San Francisco Bay area the bride chose a long sleeved, full-skirted wine velvet dress with white accessories. A white orchid completed the ensemble.

The bride will graduate in teacher education from Oregon State University in June and the groom is employed by the State of Oregon at the University's "Memorial Union."

NEW GRAIN VARIETIES
FOR WESTERN CANADA

Agriculture Minister Harry Hays today announced the release by the Canada Department of Agriculture of four new grain varieties — a new wheat, a new barley, a new oat, and a new flax.

The new wheat has been named Manitou. It is a high quality, rust resistant spring wheat that has outyielded Selkirk and Pembina in tests throughout the Prairies over the past three years. Manitou carries extra genes for stem rust resistance and also has outstanding leaf rust resistance.

Conquest, the new six-rowed malting barley, is superior to the malting varieties now grown in yield, straw strength, and disease resistance. In the black soil zones of Manitoba and eastern Saskatchewan, it has outyielded Husky, a feed barley. Conquest is the first malting variety developed in Canada that is resistant to both loose smut and stem rust.

The new oat is Harmon. It is very similar to Rodney except that it is resistant to Race 7A stem rust and is higher yielding.

Noralta, the new flax variety, is early maturing and has performed exceptionally well in the black and gray soils of Alberta and the black soils of Manitoba and eastern Saskatchewan. It is superior in yield and straw strength to early maturing varieties now grown. Noralta also carries resistance to race 300 flax rust.

Mr. Hays commented:

"The introduction of these new varieties of grain is of great significance to Canadian agriculture. In each case, the new grains are considered by my Department's researchers who developed them to be superior to existing varieties, both in their resistance to disease and in production capacity.

Because of the importance of wheat in Canada's economy, especially in the export trade, the new wheat variety is of particular significance. In tests it has outproduced Pembina and Selkirk in the rust areas of Manitoba and Saskatchewan and has performed as well as Thatcher or Canthatch, even outside of the rust regions.

It is another example of the importance of research carried on by the scientists in my department not only to agriculture but to the whole Canadian economy. I believe this new wheat variety will help Canadian farmers stay in front in the increasingly competitive international wheat market.

The new barley variety is also of considerable importance since it has proven more productive and disease-resistant than existing malting varieties."

Seed of Manitou wheat and Conquest barley will be distributed to Foundation growers selected by the Department of Agriculture in consultation with Provincial Stock Seed Committees of the Canadian Seed Growers Association. Distribution will be handled by the Department's Research Branch seed office, Box 38, Regina. Seed supplies Harmon oats and Noralta flax are multiplied in this manner will be now available. These will be multi-available for wider distribution for plied by the Department of Agriculture this year for release for seeding in 1966.

Only limited supplies of seed of 1966 seeding.

Though confined to a wheelchair by muscular dystrophy, 11-year-old Debbie Selmes responds happily to the good news she has just received from The Muscular Dystrophy Association of Canada. Debbie has learned that the annual March for Muscular Dystrophy raised over $473,000.00 — more than ever before. Her friends, the Canadian fire fighters turned out by the thousands to help make the campaign a success. They rang doorbells, sold tags, held dances and placed collection canisters in communities across Canada. Debbie knows that these funds will finance more than 50 research projects that are racing the clock in order to save her life. Debbie's personal message to the fire fighters and everyone else who helped: "God bless you all!"

THE HOMEMAKER

Miss Margaret McLachlan

District Home Economist

Box 40, Claresholm — Phone 235-3242

I guess no homemaker needs to be told there's a shortage of potatoes and prices are climbing. What has been considered an economical necessity is becoming, in some families, a real luxury. Budget-conscious homemakers are already looking for substitutes.

According to Canada's Food Guide, we need one serving of potatoes a day for good health. Families that are used to having potatoes two or even three times a day can find a number of substitutes for potatoes.

Macaroni, spaghetti and noodles are good substitutes for potatoes. Macaroni and spaghetti can be combined in a casserole with creamed vegetables or tomatoes to make an interesting supper dish. They can also be used with creamed meats or meats in sauces to make a hearty main course. Noodles can be served buttered with meaty sauces or alone, if your family prefers.

Rice is another staple that makes a good potato substitute. However, watch that the kind you buy is cheaper than using potatoes. Some of the partially cooked or instant varieties can be quite expensive. Rice can be served alone as a vegetable or in casserole combinations or as a bed for meats in sauce.

Baked beans, lima beans and kidney beans can be used alone or in combination with meats for a hearty supper.

Dumplings, Biscuits, Muffins, Try Dumplings with stews, biscuits on top of Shepherd's Pie and muffins as potato substitutes. Again be sure they aren't more costly than potatoes.

Don't stop using potatoes — we need them for health, but do plan to use substitutes to help your budget.

Action On Nursing Home

An announcement can be expected at any time now that a 35 or 50-bed nursing home will be built and operated in Vulcan by private enterprise.

In conversation with Ross Ellis of High River, chairman of the Vulcan-Foothills district board, he indicated that two private concerns were interested in the venture and that a majority of the board members concerned favored a private enterprise nursing home over a municipally-owned and operated home.

The question of whether a private or a municipal owned and operated nursing home is better was debated at some length by board members before decision was made. Briefly, a private enterprise home will not involve any financial commitment by the municipalities concerned, either for original costs or to meet a possible operating deficit. Standards of service have to satisfy the Board but it was on this matter that there were some divergent opinions. A municipal nursing home, while faced with the desirability of staying within its budget and avoiding losses, would not be governed by a profit motive such as must necessarily govern a private enterprise nursing home. There is always the possibility that economies in operation and service might be practiced by a privately-operated home that could directly or indirectly affect the welfare of its patients, and it is this possibility, mainly, that governed the thinking of those in favor of a municipally-owned home.

However, a nursing home for the County of Vulcan area is definitely needed and whether it is privately- or municipally-owned and operated may not really matter. Only time will tell and meanwhile action is underway to provide this needed service.

Shower Honors Linda Dumka

A shower honouring Miss Linda Dumka was held last Wednesday evening with Miss Hazel Allen and Miss Lynn Drummond as hostesses.

Decorations of yellow and green streamers held in place with white wedding bells was the color theme.

A gaily decorated wagon laden with gifts was presented to Linda by Hazel Allen.

Seated at the bridal table with Linda were two of her bridesmaids, her sister Marilyn and Lynn Drummond. Janet Drummond looked after the guest book.

About 22 young school friends of the bride-to-be were present and an enjoyable evening was spent in playing games and charades.

Linda very suitably thanked her friends for the gifts and a delicious lunch was served by Miss Rae Uly and Miss Mary McInenly.

Another new feature at County Central High School is the short-hand classroom which is equipped with a Rheme Callifone Shorthand Lab and 20 listening stations with receiving phones. Shown above is the $2843 Lab being operated by teacher Mrs. Opal Kandt. Tapes of lessons are played at variable speeds to students who copy in shorthand. The Lab is also to be used for French language instruction with the same tape principal involved.

Full Evening At F & G Banquet

(Continued From Front Page) gested a program of establishing shelterbelts on farms, not only as habitat for upland birds but for soil protection, help in water retention and as a guard against soil erosion. "I would like to see the day when the country will be lined with shelter belts at half-mile intervals and I feel farmers should be compensated for their cooperation in this matter", he said.

An important feature of the evening was the presentation of trophies. Committee chairmen announced the following list in order of category, winner and trophy donor: Pike, Neal Dumka, the late Guy Volsey; lake and Bow River trout, Elmer Wolochaty, Guy Volsey; ducks, Leonard McCord, Vulcan Fish and Game; geese, Blaine Middleton, Mitchell and Mitchell Stores; pheasant, Bob Holton, Max Kehr; elk, Frank McNiven, Vulcan Fish and Game; mule deer, Carl Nelson, Carl Steiner; moose, Frank Jepps, Wolfe's Hardware; antelope, John Andrews, Dr. Everett Hill. There were no entries in the stream trout category; trophy donated by McAskle's Men's and Boys' Wear.

Steve Dixon, regional representative to Alberta Fish and Game, presented his regional membership trophy to Howie Marshman who passed the 400 mark in members last year and has sights set at 500 for 1965. This award goes to the club with greatest membership increase each year in this area.

About 20 laugh-filled minutes were spent in company with guest speaker Jim Fetterly of Calgary, well-known investment representative in this district. At the end of his discourse there was no proof that he had ever cast a line in a stream or swung on a duck in flight but every time his listeners recall in future such gems as "You don't realize how many holes there are in the ground 'til you empty them", the thought of his topic, water conservation will strike home.

The speaker said 50 per cent of the world's newsprint supply comes from Canada and in this regard a plan of reforestation is being effected to provide continuous new growth. But he said other segments of society are wasting and plundering the forest and bush country.

In encouraging the dollar help offered from the U.S. in converting sub-marginal land in this province to wetland waterfowl breeding areas Mr. Fetterly said a tract of land in the eastern part of Alberta is already being converted to this purpose.

He urged farmers to work along the contours of their land and plant trees in unused hillside to help conserve moisture and cultivate rather than burn stubble.

In closing Mr. Fetterly suggested his listeners "Take a better look at God-given things which are ours . . . nothing that lives can survive long without water — take care of what you've got".

MC Rev. Bob Johnson then introduced the musical portion of the program which consisted of some polka-styled accordion selections by Casper Klotz, accompanied by Alvin Jacobson on drums and Pete Huculak on guitar, and followed by three songs by Mrs. Evelyn Eberl, one accompanied by Jean Ann Hartung, on piano. Two western ballads sung by Howie Marshman preceded a general singing during which time the floor was cleared for the short old-time dance which followed.

Before the evening ended Glen Dahl was given the thanks of the local sports group for his two years of devoted Fish and Game work and incoming president, charter member John Andrews was introduced.

Door prizes were won by Mildred Marshman and a visitor from Staveley. Membership draw prizes were won by Ann Green of Vulcan and Ian Thomson of Milo.

DINTON

DINTON W.I. MEETING

The February meeting of Dinton WI met at the home of Mrs. S. N. Gillanders with 15 members and seven visitors. Mrs. Alvin Montgomery, president welcomed the visitors among whom were Mrs. G. C. Newman, District 4 Director and Mrs. J. P. Kennedy, charter member and first secretary when the WI was organized in 1916 at the home of Mrs. Isaac Laycraft.

1966 will be Dinton's 50 years and plans are already in the making. Roll call was answered with Where I was born and something about the place.

Motto of the month was Splinters on the Ladder of Success Are Much Sharper on the Way Down. A St. Patrick's tea will be held at Dinton Hall, March 17. Mr. Whitburn, Calgary will demonstrate Flowers and Plants in a Spring theme.

Good progress is being made in the printing of the community history "Gladys and Dinton, Through the Years".

There have understandably been delays as Northwest Printing is a very busy firm. The new hope is to have the book off the press and

LETTER TO EDITOR

Editor, The Vulcan Advocate

Last year a group of fine young men from County Central won the South Central District Play-offs in B. Boys Basketball and represented Vulcan in the Provincial Playoffs in St. Pauls, Alberta.

The support and encouragement they received was pitiful. Teams from a greater distance than Vulcan were accompanied by bus loads of fans, cheerleaders and enthusiastic supporters. This support spurred the team to victory. Our boys played their hearts out consistently and well to a very few supporting parents.

How many know that a few weeks ago this same team won an invitational tournament in Vulcan against teams from Okotoks, Claresholm and Bowness? How many know that recently this team travelled to Olds and again with excellent team work and consistent play won the B. Boys Basketball Trophy for South Central Alberta and are thereby entitled to again play in the Provincials to be held this year in St. Albert?

It may be impossible for us to attend these playoffs out of town but we can give them our congratulations, we can let them know we are interested. Let's show them we appreciate their fine sportsmanship and the honor they have brought to County Central.

Yours for better basketball support.

An enthusiast.

Disappointment or Fulfillment For 32 Lomond Boys?

Do we as parents and adult stand behind or ignore the wonderful enthusiasm of 32 Cubs and Scouts of the Lomond District? In the past years we have had 18 boys achieve their Queen's Scout and the first Rover crew in Southern Alberta Region.

All this was accomplished only with adult support. But this support is very close to nil at present, and the attending Group Committee find it impossible to carry on with present lack of interest. We urgently ask you to attend their final meeting in the Lomond Scout Hall on Thursday evening, March 18 at 8 p.m. Don't let this fine, worthwhile record of our youth be scrapped now for the want of rewarding effort and concern for growing youth on the part of our adults. You are needed — so please attend!

Vulcan West-Ensign 4-H Beef Club—

The monthly meeting was held March 6 at 1 p.m. Due to the absence of the president, vice-president Pat Irwin conducted the meeting.

The highlight was a judging competition held at Eric Thorpe's farm. The members were honored to have Mr. Groeneveld as a judge. He also gave a very interesting talk on choosing a herd sire.

A short meeting at the Ensign 4-H members will take orders for them. The speaking competition was then held with every member taking part, some of them trying the impromptu speeches. The winners were Brenda Williams and Merle Wyatt who will represent the club at Vulcan. If one of them cannot attend at Vulcan Bud Cockwill would take their place.

A tasty lunch followed the adjournment.

Arrowwood 4-H Club—

The Arrowwood 4-H club held its regular meeting and speaking competition at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ward on Monday. The members dealt with routine business and discussed their tour to Calgary in the Easter Holidays.

They are going to have a show in the near future to raise money. The Emblem for Slow Moving Vehicles was on display and local Recent visitors touring the new wing of County Central High School were struck by the bright, modern design and spacious interior of the school. Old-style crowded hallways have been replaced with wide corridors such as those shown above but these must accommodate the mass movement of students from grade 7 to 12 as they go from class to class.

An interesting feature of County Central High School which was viewed recently by the public, are the manual training rooms in which are taught woodworking, automotive, electricity and metal work. Above two students and two teachers are gathered around a

A discussion on the value of an opportunity class for the Vulcan County resulted in the decision to request from the School Board some information regarding the possibility of establishing such a class.

Following the business meeting, Miss Beverly Thorp introduced the guest speaker, Dr. Pettifor, the senior psychologist with the Calgary Guidance Clinic. Her topic was "Intelligence in Relation to Vocational Schools."

Referring to the great emphasis today on "Higher Education" Dr. Pettifor questioned the attitude of those parents who expect that every child should plan to attend university. Many find a good living and satisfaction in their work through other types of education. It was shown that with available testing methods there is no means to accurately measure the intelligence of an individual so the I.Q. rating of a student cannot be used as the sole "measuring" device in their choice of an educational route. Some with a high academic rating may be more successful and happier in the choice of a vocational training than with one taken in the university.

The lively discussion which followed the address showed the interest of the parents on the subject.

A social gathering over coffee was enjoyed by all present.

CUBS AND SCOUTS?

The Lomond Cubs and Scouts may soon be a thing of the past, unless there is some interest shown by the adults in Lomond and district. The groups cannot carry on without the help of adults and it does seem as if no one is interested. Lomond had the first Rover Patrol organized in Southern Alberta. Also there were 18 boys from this small district who received Queen's Scout Certificates, which is really something to be proud of.

At present there are 32 Cubs and Scouts. These boys deserve a chance too.

The final group meeting will be held at the Scout Hall on Thurs-

THROWING MUD

Few of us would willingly commit perjury. We would recoil at standing up in court and swearing away a neighbor's character. This sort of thing would be repugnant to all decent people. The commandment "thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor" covers far more than such deliberate acts of betrayal. There is idle gossip, the spreading of a careless rumour. This falls under the condemnation of the commandment too. Such gossip causes more harm and hurt than deliberate perjury. Why? Because it's more widespread and common and because it is impossible to catch up with it and lay it low.

The old phrase — throw mud and some will stick — is perfectly true. A wild story about somebody, a rumour or piece of gossip which defames his character, and something will remain, even when the statement is shown to be false. One of the best ways that Christians can show how different they are is by abstaining from gossip or rumour spreading. I am far from sure that such total abstinence is not more important than total abstinence from alcoholic drink. The intoxication of gossip is more heady and harmful than wine; and its evil consequences may be wider spread.

St. James says that the tongue is a small evil that can start a prairie fire. In towns, in streets, in stores in women's groups, malicious and careless gossip can ruin a community spirit, can create suspicion in a home, and can destroy real friendships.

You as a Christian can bear a real witness, and can help others to do the same. You will not just be keeping the ninth commandment, you will be going beyond it and offering a service which is acceptable to Christ.

FROM THE LEGISLATURE

Ray Speaker M.L.A. Alberta's second session of the 15th Legislature opened Feb. 18, 3 p.m., with much pomp, color, and pageantry, a 12 step ceremony, 62 members in the assembly—59 Social Credit, two Liberal, one Coalition, 1 vacant—and as well some 400 guests. The Clerk of the Assembly, Ray Crevelin, read the official Proclamation calling the Legislature. Mr. Speaker, Hon. Art Dixon, announced by the Sergeant at Arms entered the Assembly. Then the Premier accompanied by the Clerk left the assembly by the Members Entrance to the right of the Speaker in order to escort His Honor The Lieutenant Governor. Minutes later, His Honor with the Premier, announced by the Sergeant at Arms entered the Assembly and took his seat on the Throne. He read The Throne Speech and retired from the assembly. Step six was the introduction of the first Bill, a non-money Bill, followed by the tabling of the Throne Speech. The remaining steps were formal motions for consideration of the Throne Speech on Friday; printing of Votes and Proceedings; appointing of Select Standing committees; appointing of a Special committee, and a motion of adjournment of the Assembly by the Premier to Friday at 2:30.

The Speech from the Throne is a document which unveils Government Legislation for the session. In this report I will merely give a resume. In future reports I will discuss various amendments and bills in detail.

The department of Agriculture reported that farm income for the first six months of 1964 was approximately 25% higher than for the same period the previous year due, mainly to the increased sales of wheat on the export market. Also, various agricultural services will be enlarged; additional studies on irrigation and drainage problems will be continued from which more efficient and improved programs will be developed; expansion of the ARDA program will be carried out under a new agreement with the Government of Canada; and amendments to agricultural statutes including the Marketing of Agricultural Products Act will be proposed.

In the field of education the Speech emphasized the continuance of Committee study of the complex problem of how best to meet the ever growing educational needs, having regard to the factors of service, cost, type of institutions, and population distribution; the further expansion of the Southern and Northern Institutes of Technology; and a special attention to be given to the provision of training which will upgrade the academic background and technical skills of unemployed and other workmen desirous of taking advantage of this opportunity.

Public Health called for extension of benefits under the Alberta Hospital Plan to include out-patient service at hospitals throughout the Province. This will provide diagnostic and emergency treatment services and will help reduce the demand on in-patient service, thereby freeing more hospital facilities for those requiring in-patient care. Also a careful study is to be made of the needs for new mental hospital facilities in the southern part of Alberta. Plans will be made during the ensuing year for a new 300 to 400 bed mental hospital clinic to be built at the Foothills site in Calgary.

Also the speech asked the legislature to approve an amendment to the Alberta Election Act extending to Indians, as defined in the Federal Indian Act the right to vote in provincial elections. The construction of five senior property of non-profit, charitable, religious, educational, or welfare organizations, was requested for Assembly approval.

The Body was asked to approve the establishment of a special legislative committee to study the problems confronting commercial fisheries and to make recommendations for the solution of these problems.

The Speech showered the northern part of our province with recognition. It called for approval of a comprehensive program, recommended by the Northern Development Council, to accelerate the construction of roads, air strips and other facilities as are required to service existing communities and open new areas of development. This program will include a pilot project under which new land to be opened for settlement. Speech from the Throne, and Mr. will first be provided with roads. Romeo Lamothe, M.L.A. Bonny- and other essential facilities and will be seconded it.

If anyone cares for a copy of On Friday, the second day of The Speech please contact me at legislative proceedings, Mr. Bob the Legislative Buildings, Ed-Simpson M.L.A. Calgary, moved the motion.

Economy was never this luxurious or luxury so economical

Chevrolet interiors invite you to discover just how luxurious a car can be. Chevrolet has what it takes to make you comfortable... loads of footroom, hip-room, shoulder and headroom. There's deep-twist carpeting, foam-cushioned seats finished with pattern cloth or long-wearing vinyl. And more... crank-operated ventpanes, cigarette lighter, rear armrests with ashtrays. Check luxury — first item in the Chevrolet list of plus values!

Chevrolet's famous Turbo-Thrift Six warms up quickly. Puts 140 horsepower at your toe to give you spunk and savings. A full complement of maintenance savers, too. Chevrolet power — with V8's up to 400 hp — plus value!

Frameless curved sideglass and curved side pillars add to shoulder room, give a lithe, light look. And the new bonded-in windshield and rear window give more positive sealing, a smoother overall appearance.

Chevrolet's built-in "extras" give you lower maintenance costs, a higher price at trade-in. Like the rust protection from Chevrolet's flush-and-dry rocker panels: water entering the cowl inlet ventilation system, flushes out dirt and dust. Incoming air follows, dries the panel interiors. Like the inner front and rear fenders which do a great job of protecting outer panels. Add up all the pluses and you'll discover why Chevrolet is the most economically luxurious buy you can make.

Kinsmen Club Wins Two Games

On Tuesday March 2, at 9:00 p.m. the Kinsmen and Elks Clubs met at the arena for a broomball game. A few wives, club members and friends were on hand to cheer on the teams.

The final score of the game was 6-3 in favor of the Kinsmen, even though there was a little shenanigans carried on by the opposing team.

Then on Thursday, March 4th the Kinsmen and Highlanders played a game under very poor ice conditions. Due to the warm weather of last week the rink was covered with water, making solid footing very difficult. No need to say most players were soaked by the end of the game. Score 5-4 in favor of Kinsmen.

It is hoped that a re-match between the Kinsmen and Lions Clubs will be held before spring. The Lions were victorious in a broomball game between the two clubs last month.
